DUNDATIONAL SAVINGS	YES	Ν
 Do you need to save more in your Emergency Fund? If so, consider the following: If you are married and both you and your spouse are employed, you may want to set aside three months of living expenses in case of an emergency. If you are single or the sole income earner, you may want to set aside six months of living expenses in case of an emergency. If you are a high-income earner or entrepreneur, you may want to set aside as much as 18 months of living expenses to take advantage of job mobility and business opportunities.
HEALTHCARE SAVINGS	YES	NO
Do you have a Flexible Savings Account (FSA)? If so, consider making a tax-deductible contribution of $2,750, which can be used on medical, dental, and vision care. Be sure to spend any funds that can't be carried over by the end of the year (or any grace period offered by your plan), as you may lose any remaining funds.
Do you have a Health Savings Account (HSA)? If so, consider contributing up to $3,600 ($7,200 for a family) and an additional $1,000 if you are age 55 or over. The HSA is the most tax-preferred vehicle available. See "Can I Make A Deductible Contribution To My HSA?" flowchart for details.

EMPLOYER-PROVIDED BENEFITS & BUSINESS OWNER SAVINGS	YES	NO
 Are you a business owner? If so, consider the following: You can contribute up to $58,000 ($64,500 if age 50 or over) in a 401(k), including your employer and employee contributions. See "Should I Set Up A Traditional 401(k) For My Business?" flowchart. You can save more than the 401(k) amounts by opening and contributing to a pension plan. Contribution amounts will vary depending on several factors, such as the ages of the employees.
 Are you a business owner and do you have minor children? If so, consider the following: Offering your children paid positions within the business can allow them to save in their name (and to be taxed at their income bracket). A Roth IRA may be an appealing account to fund. Single Owner LLCs, Sole Proprietorships and Partnerships where the only owners are the parents don't have to pay FICA taxes on the earnings of a minor child.

 ACCOUNTS TO HELP FUTURE GENERATIONS Are you or your dependents planning to attend college? If so, consider using a 529 plan to save for college: You can use your annual exclusion amount to contribute up to $15,000 per year to a beneficiary's 529 account, gift tax-free. Alternatively, you can make a lump sum contribution of up to $75,000 to a beneficiary's 529 account, and elect to treat it as if it were made evenly over a 5-year period, gift tax-free. You may be eligible for a state income tax deduction or credit if you contribute to a plan sponsored by your state. 	YES

TAX-DEFERRED INSURANCE OPTIONS	YES	NO
 Do you have (or would you consider) an annuity? If so, consider the following: If you have maxed out your savings in tax-deferred accounts, this option may be attractive as it provides tax deferral on the gains. Depending on the contract, some annuities offer very few guarantees resulting in low-cost options.
Do you need to increase your life insurance coverage? If so, consider the benefits of buying a cash value life insurance policy, which can provide both life insurance and tax deferral on the gains.
OTHER ACCOUNTS	YES	NO
 Are you looking to invest in the markets and are not overly concerned about saving (or able to save) in tax-deferred accounts? If so, consider a taxable brokerage account: Long-term gains are taxed at preferential rates upon the sale (no tax at distribution from the account). Qualified dividends are also taxed at preferential rates. Some investments (tax-managed funds, zero-dividend stock funds, municipal bond funds, ETFs) can further mitigate any tax liability.
Are you charitably inclined? If so, consider utilizing a Donor Advised Fund.
Do you have any debts (especially credit card debt)? If so, consider paying down high-interest debt instead of saving more.
